some days ago. After the reading for the defendant filed a number of objections to the same, among the most important being: "There existed no moving party lu the case; act of legislature instructing the at torney general to take action in the matter was unconstitutional inasmuch as it was an infringement upon the rights of the court; motion to set aside cannot be valid as the order of the court in the premises was final; court has no power to recon sider the evidence; court holds no power to vacate its prior order made;

Following this objection, Attorney

Green was allowed to file a motion to strike out a number of paragraphs of the complaint but the court ruled he would not consider the latter ob jections until the former objections had been acted upon. Attorneys Mack and Green argued that the evi dence in the case should be taken and the case is toto completed before argument upon any portion of the case should be taken up. This was er who argued that if the first object ained he had no standing in court and would be only taking up the ime of the court and causing extra expense. This idea was held by Judge Langan who ruled that the arcuments upon the first objection to he complaint should be made and he case settled as far as those oints were concerned before othe ction be taken in the matter. A
